We supported a leading investment services provider in turning its head office into a contemporary, collaborative space reflecting its dynamism, self-belief, and commitment to success.

A key requirement was that its distinct colour palate of bright aqua, turquoise and vibrant orange should feature prominently.

number of features, including frosted glass partitioning and a contemporary table featuring a woodgrain patterned finish.

This was an exciting and highly creative project to deliver, not only because the client engaged us early, but because the client's vision of a truly culture-defined workspace gave our experienced, multi-disciplinary team the creative license to dial up the 'wow' factor.

We also created a breakout space where staff could collaborate and brainstorm in a relaxed environment, complete with several beanbags.

The client's boardroom was a particular focus of the project, with a less formal design requested. Our team addressed this using a
